

What you need to refinance your mortgage

Ready to take action? We look at your entire situation to determine the best options to save money and put you closer to your financial goals. If you're ready to refinance, or if you want to learn more about rates and whether now is a good time to refinance, reach out to your trusted mortgage loan officer.

Here are some documents you may need to refinance:

- Legible copy of photo ID for each borrower
- W-2s or federal tax returns
- Current pay stubs covering the most recent 30-day period
- Bank statements for the past two months
- Copy of current mortgage statement
- Name and contact information for home owner's insurance agent

